Re: Thales Airborne Systems, et al. v. Universal Avionics Systems Corp.,
C.A. No. 05-853-SLR

Dear Chief Judge Robinson:

The parties to the above action have discussed a joint form of scheduling order in preparation for the September 8, 2006 Rule 16 teleconference, but have not been able to reach agreement on a trial date. As Your Honor will see from the enclosed form of order, the plaintiffs' proposed dates are geared toward trial commencing on February 11, 2008, while the defendant's proposed dates are geared toward trial commencing on April 7, 2008. The parties recognize, of course, that they undoubtedly will need to adapt their proposed schedules to conform to the Court's calendar and availability, and look forward to discussing the case schedule with Your Honor on Friday morning at 8:30 am (Eastern).

Respectfully,

/s/ John G. Day
